
MILWAUKEE CONSORTIUM
FOR HMONG HEALTH, INC.

1454 North 24th Street
Milwaukee, WI 53205
(414) 460-0570

MISSION

To engage the Southeast Asian American community for positive change regarding to chronic diseases and cancer health and wellness.

Why we exist?

- High mortality rate of cancer death, specifically with breast and cervical cancer among Hmong women

- Reduce health disparities in the Hmong and Southeast Asian communities.

Activities

- One-on-one educations
- Assist with Insurance
- Assist in making appointments
- Attend doctors' visits and screenings
- Find resources
- Monthly workshops
- Annual Health Conference

MILWAUKEE CONSORTIUM
FOR HMONG HEALTH, INC.

Monthly Workshops

MILWAUKEE CONSORTIUM
FOR HMONG HEALTH, INC.

- Breast, Cervical & Liver Cancer Education
- Diabetes and Hypertension Education
- Clinical Breast Exams (CBE)
- Hepatitis Education & Screenings
- Nutrition Education
- Exercise

Clientele Database

- 295 Outreach & Education
  - 252 Females
  - 43 Males
  - 35-65 Age range
- 318 Navigation for resources and services
- 48 Screenings
- Health Coverage
  - 29 Medicaid
  - 3 Private Insurance
  - 2 WI Well Woman
  - 14 Other

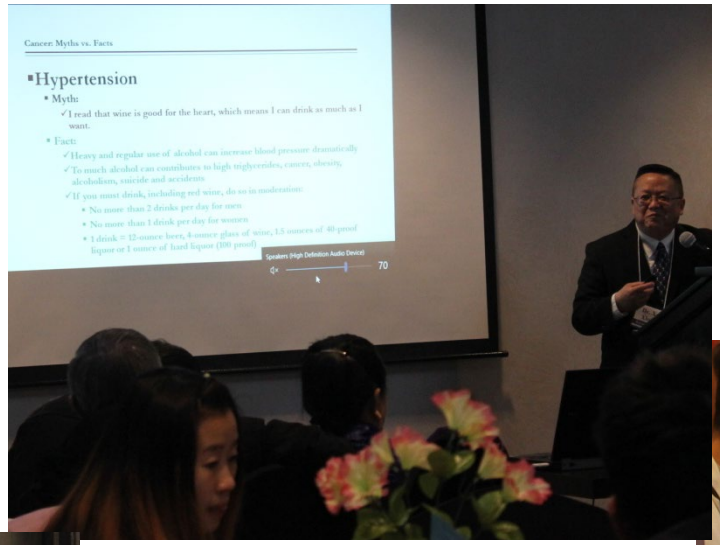
MILWAUKEE CONSORTIUM
FOR HMONG HEALTH, INC.

Case Management

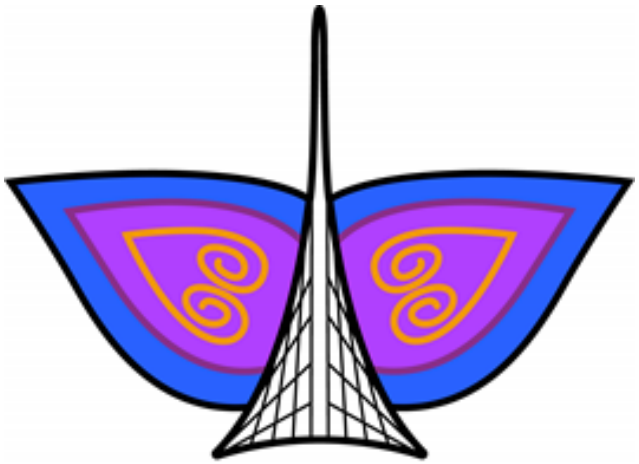
- Ensuring participants have access to healthcare
- Provide resources to break barriers
- Maintaining healthy lifestyles through coaching
- Create a thriving SEA American community

Annual Conferences

MILWAUKEE CONSORTIUM
FOR HMONG HEALTH, INC.



Bringing the community, professionals, and survivors together!



Thank You!