Dr. Alyssa Kaying Vang
Psychologist & Owner of Vanguard Mental Health and Wellness Clinic, LLC

Please join our virtual training, provided by Dr. Alyssa Kaying Vang, a clinical psychologist. With over twenty years of clinical experience, Dr. Vang is considered a pioneer in the field of Hmong mental health. In this 4-part series training, Dr. Vang will share her skills and knowledge for providing culturally-responsive mental health services to Hmong clients.

Why: Although the Hmong have been in the United States for over 45 years, there continues to be limited culturally appropriate resources to properly address the well-being of the Hmong community. This training, provided by a bilingual mental health provider of Hmong descent, will continue with our commitment to bringing culturally-relevant trainings to help address the mental health needs of the Hmong community

What: A series of 4 virtual workshops covering topics related to Hmong mental health, culturally-appropriate services, and specific strategies to use.

Who Should Attend: Individuals working with and/or interested in understanding better the mental health needs of the Hmong community.
