

What's New in Melanoma Care:

From Safety in the Sun to New Research Approaches

FREE Educational Event

You'll walk away with practical tips and approaches to understand melanoma, while also learning about emerging melanoma research.

Saturday, May 20 • Monona Terrace—1 John Nolen Drive, Madison

8–9 am

Registration & Breakfast

9–9:10 am

Welcome

Mark Albertini, MD

Professor, Division of Hematology, Oncology & Palliative Care, UW Department of Medicine

9:10–9:30 am

Safety in the Sun

Gloria Xu, MD, PhD

Professor, UW Department of Dermatology

9:30–9:50 am

Melanoma Surgical Management in 2023

Heather Neuman, MD

Associate Professor, Division of Surgical Oncology, UW Department of Surgery

9:50–10:10 am

Roadmap for Continued Progress in the Melanoma Clinic

Mark Albertini, MD

Professor, Division of Hematology, Oncology & Palliative Care, UW Department of Medicine

10:10–10:35 am

Question & Answer

10:35–10:45 am

Break

10:45–11:05 am

Clinical Studies at UW Carbone Cancer Center to Improve Outcomes for Advanced Melanoma Patients

Vincent Ma, MD

Assistant Professor, Division of Hematology, Oncology & Palliative Care, UW Department of Medicine

11:05–11:25 am

Patient Panel

Experiences and insights from patients with melanoma

11:25–11:30 am

AIM at Melanoma Patient Resources

Ann Garst Taylor

Director Community Engagement
AIM at Melanoma Foundation

11:30 am–12 pm

Question & Answer

Register Now:

There are two ways to join us for this FREE program: Register to attend in person by visiting uwhealth.org/aim

- Attendees will receive breakfast, handouts and a chance to connect with presenters in person.
- FREE parking will be available at Monona Terrace on this day.

Would you rather enjoy this program from the comfort of your home?

- If so, watch this event via our virtual attendance link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85145116251>

Questions?

Please contact Allison Dahlke, ardahlke@wisc.edu or (608) 890-3604

Presented by:

UWHealth

Carbone Cancer Center
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE AND PUBLIC HEALTH