

BREAST CANCER SURVIVORSHIP NAVIGATOR VIRTUAL LEARNING COLLABORATIVE

14-week online training program for patient navigators
and community health workers

DATES

Every Tuesday from 6:00-7:00 pm CST
Starting Tuesday September 5, 2023
Spots are limited. Register now to reserve your seat!

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

- ✓ Currently delivering care to individuals diagnosed with breast cancer (example: patient navigation, CHWs, facilitating breast cancer support groups, health ministries, etc.)
- ✓ Willing to present at least one de-identified client case
- ✓ Commitment to actively participate in the full 14-week series

PARTICIPANTS WILL LEARN HOW TO SUPPORT BREAST CANCER PATIENTS IN THE FOLLOWING AREAS:

PsychoSocial Care

Patient Navigator
Resources

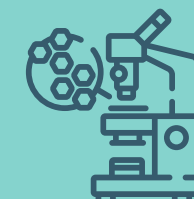

Sex and Intimacy

Managing Treatment
Side Effects

Insurance & Financial Toxicity

Clinical Trials

Metastatic Disease

Palliative Care

Family Risk & Genetics

Participation is FREE! Registration is REQUIRED.

Register Now!

<https://redcap.link/VLC>

Questions?

Contact Talia, VLC Coordinator
Email: talia@uic.edu

Young and A Survivor (YAAS) is a program at University of Illinois Cancer Center supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Cooperative Agreement NU58DP006674